Govt has no desire to issue ordinances: Venkaiah aced with criticism over the government issuing several ordinances, Union Minister M Venkaiah Naidu on Sunday said the iment has no fancy for issuing ordinances and the Opposition should allow the Parliament to function properly.

y has got a fancy for issuing ordinances. We donand#39;t want to issue ordinances. But a violent minority cannot obstruct t majority from taking the countryand#39;s development forward, the Parliamentary Affairs minister said.

that it is the right of the opposition parties to oppose the government, he said they can resort to democratic methods, lkout to register their protest.

reged that the opposition parties are stalling the Rajya Sabha as they seem to not be in favour of the Modi government g a good name for its development efforts.

ends from opposition... they want to block development. They donand#39;t want Narendra Modi to get name by ping the nation. That seems to be the attitude. Otherwise, there is no meaning. I am not saying opposition should support move of the government...No. You are the opposition...I propose, you oppose. Let the House dispose. Allow the House to in, he said.

ng that there was a holiday for growth for 10 years (during UPA regime), he said there is a need to work overtime now.

g that the NDA government has inherited fiscal deficit, revenue deficit and current account deficit and above all trust , he said the confidence has now come back and things are looking up.

ining that the Modi government is trying to repair the damage caused to the economic growth, he said reforms are being up and it takes time to witness the fruits of the efforts.

ring that Prime Minister Narendra Modi has unleashed forces of growthand#39;, he said the country is now poised for growth.

s projected to grow at 6.3 per cent in 2015 and 6.5 per cent in 2016, when it is likely to cross Chinaand#39;s projected 1 rate of 6.3 per cent as the governmentand#39;s reforms are promising and their implementation is key, Naidu said.

ling to him, under the Pradhan Matri Jan Dhan Yojana, 11.05 crore accounts have been enrolled which is a world record .

ting that frequent elections in the country were affecting the focus on development efforts, he expressed hope that a day come when all elections in the country are held once in five years.

who was speaking at the 56th National Cost Convention of the Institute of Cost Accountants of India here, noted that

; November and now in February, Naidu, who is playing an active role in once in five years. Parliament, Assembly, municipality, local body, esand#39; organisation... All should be done within a week so that there is oment activity of our country. I hope that situation will come one day.
