(a) Ashim acquired a building on May 12, 2001 for ₹27 Lakhs. In 2004, He entered into negotiation with a prospective buyer, who gave him advance money of ₹3 Lakhs at that time. However, the negotiations failed and Ashim forfeited the advance money. Subsequently, he actually sold the building in August 2012 for ₹50 Lakhs. Calculate the taxable capital gains on the sale of the building.

Solution:

Less: Earnest money forfeited	3,00,000

(b) A jeweller converts his ancestral gold ornaments into the stock-in-trade of his jewellery business on 01.01.2003. The ornaments are actually sold on 27.01.2013 for ₹100 Lakhs. The market value of these ornaments was ₹10 Lakhs on 01.04.1981 and ₹50 Lakhs on 01.01.2003. State the tax implications of the above transactions.

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

Solution:

This is a case of conversion of personal asset into stock in trade. The capital gain arises on the date of conversion i.e. 01.01.2003 but date of liability will be 27.01.2013, when the stock was in fact sold. Being ancestral property, the fair market value of ₹10 Lakhs as on 01.04.1981 will be the cost of acquisition.

On 01.01.2003(date of conversion), LTCG will be ₹5.30 Lakhs being the difference of market value on the date of conversion and the cost of acquisition (i.e. ₹50 Lakhs - ₹10 Lakhs X 447/100)
On 27.01.2013, when the ornaments were actually sold for ₹100 Lakhs, ₹50 Lakhs (i.e. ₹100 Lakhs - ₹50 Lakhs) will be treated as business profit
Hence, ₹50 Lakhs will be his business profit and ₹5.30 Lakhs will be his LTCG for the A.Y. 2013-14.

Long-term Capital Gains	12,95,604

In order to avail the maximum benefit u/s 54F, the exemption should be computed as follows:

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

Total long-term Capital Gain (5,18,797 + 12,95,604)	18,14,401
Less : Exemption u/s 54F $\left[\frac{\text{Cost of New House} + \text{Amount Deposited}}{\text{Net Consideration}} \times \text{LTCG} \right]$
$= \frac{42,00,000}{45,00,000} \times 18,14,401$	16,93,441

(c) Original Capital Gain	18,14,401
(d) Notional Long-term Capital Gain $\left[\frac{2,00,000}{45,00,000} \times 18,14,401 \right]$	80,640
(e) Effective exemption u/s 54F [₹16,93,441 – ₹80,640]	16,12,801

₹80,640 will be chargeable to tax as Long-term Capital Gain after expiry of 3 years from the date of transfer of jewellery. Consequently it will be taxable for the assessment year 2016-17.

II. The unutilised amount of ₹ 2 Lakhs can be utilised by Dipika at any time after 16.09.2012.

III. If Dipika sells this new house property before 21.01.2016, then ₹16,93,441 (exemption u/s 54F) will be to tax as Long-term Capital Gain of the year in which the house is sold.

(c) Do you think the terms “application of income” and “diversion of income” have same meaning? Justify your answer.

Answer:

The terms “application of income” and “diversion of income” have different meanings.

Application of Income is an obligation to apply income, which has accrued or has arisen or has been received amounts to merely the apportionment of income. Therefore the essentials of the concept of application of income under the provisions of the Income Tax Act are:

- (i) Income accrues to the assessee

Diversion of Income is an obligation to apply the income in a particular way before it is received by the assessee or before it has arisen or accrued to the assessee results in diversion of income. (a) Deepak avails the benefit of LTC and travelled by air (economy class) on a holiday in India on 25th December, 2012 along with his wife and three children consisting of daughter aged

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

5 years and twin sons of 2 years age. Total cost of tickets reimbursed by his employer was ₹80,000 (₹50,000 for two adults and ₹30,000 for three children). State with reason the amount which can be claimed by Deepak out of reimbursement as not subject to tax? Will your answer be different where among his three children the twins are of 5 years of age and the age of the daughter was of 2 years old?

Solution:

The LTC exemption is available only for two children of an individual born after 01.10.1998. In reckoning this limit of two children, children born out of multiple births after the first birth will be treated as one child only.

First daughter and then twin sons – The exemption shall apply to all the three children as the twins will be considered as one child. Hence, ₹80,000 can be claimed as exemption.

First twin sons and then daughter – The exemption will apply to the twin sons who are considered as two children and not to the daughter. Hence, only ₹70,000 can be claimed as exemption.

(b) LLM Ltd. under its ESOP scheme allotted 400 equity shares of its Finance Manager, Mr. Sharma on 17th June, 2012, when he exercised his option. The Option was granted on 15th February 2011 and shares vested with him on 15th February, 2012. The company's shares are quoted in the recognized stock exchange where the Opening Price and Closing Price on the exercise date were ₹300 and ₹310 respectively. The Company recovered ₹100 per share from Mr. Sharma. Compute the taxable value of the perquisite. What is the cost of acquisition of such shares?

Solution:

As per Section 17(2), any specified security or Sweat Equity Shares allotted free of cost or at concessional rates to employees is taxable as perquisite in the hands of the employee w.e.f. Assessment Year 2010-11.

Taxable Value of perquisite = Fair Market Value on the date of exercise of the option less amount recovered from employee.

Calculation of Value of Perquisite

Particulars	Amount (₹)
Opening Price on the date of Exercise	300
Closing Price on the date of Exercise	310
Fair Market Value on the date exercise $[(300+310)/2]$	305
Fair Market Value of the shares allotted $[400 \times 305]$	1,22,000
Amount received from Mr. Sharma $[400 \times 100]$	40,000
Value of Perquisite	82,000

Cost of acquisition of the shares allotted:

(c) Rajiv is a person carrying on profession as Film Artist. His gross receipts from profession are as follows:

Financial Year	Amount Received (₹)
2011-12	1,95,000

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

2010-11	1,81,000
2009-10	1,25,000

What is his obligation regarding maintenance of books of accounts for the assessment year 2013-14 u/s 44AA?

Solution:

Section 44AA requires every person carrying on any profession, notified by the Board of the Official Gazette (in addition to the professions already specified) to maintain such books of account and other documents as may enable the Assessing Officer to compute his total income in accordance with the provisions of the Income-tax Act. The CBDT has notified the profession of film artists as one such profession (S.O. No.17E/12-1-77).

However, under the proviso to Sub-rule (1), nothing contained therein shall apply in the case of a person, if his gross receipts do not exceed ₹1,50,000/- in any one of the three years, immediately preceding the Previous Year.

Therefore, Rajiv being a specified person is not required to maintain books of accounts for the assessment year 2013-14 relating to the previous year 2012-13, since his gross receipt have not exceeded ₹1,50,000 in each of the 3 preceding financial year.

(a) AK Ltd. issued 10% Debentures and raised ₹100 Lakhs. The debentures are redeemable after 5 years at a premium of 110%. The company wants to provide ₹2 Lakhs for meeting the premium on redemption of debentures and claimed the same as revenue expenditure. Is it a permissible deduction?

Solution:

Premium payable on redemption of debentures is allowed as deduction over the period of debentures.

In the given case, it is assumed that total redemption value is 110% of face value and premium is 10% of face value. Hence, Redemption Value = ₹100 Lakhs × 110% = ₹110 Lakhs. Therefore, the premium = ₹110 Lakhs - ₹100 Lakhs = ₹10 Lakhs.

Pro-rata Premium allowed over the period of debentures = ₹10 Lakhs / 5 years = ₹2 Lakhs

Hence, the provision for premium on redemption of ₹2 Lakhs will be allowable as deduction.

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

- (x) 1,000 wrist watches costing ₹1,000 each were presented to customers.

Solution:

- (i) Section 40A(7) provides that any provision for gratuity in the books of accounts shall not be allowed as a deduction unless provision is made for any contribution towards an approved gratuity fund or provision is for gratuity, which has become due and payable during the previous year.
In the given case, gratuity has been provided in the books as per actuarial valuation but there is no liability due during the year. Hence, the amount of provision for gratuity i.e. ₹1,50,000 shall be disallowed.
- (ii) Section 37 provides that expenditure of revenue nature incurred wholly and exclusively in connection with business or profession, shall be allowed as deduction.
In the given case, the fees paid to the senior advocate to represent the Company in Income Tax proceeding is incurred wholly and exclusively in connection with business and hence, the same is fully allowed as deduction.
- (iii) Any expense incurred in connection with acquisition or construction of a capital asset should be capitalized.
In the given case, travelling expenses of ₹45,000 for negotiating purchase of plant and machinery which is a capital asset should be capitalized and not deductible.
- (iv) Section 43B provides that any sum payable by way of tax, duty, cess or fee under any law in force shall be allowed as deduction only if the same is paid on or before the due date of filing return of income u/s 139(1).
In the given case, a sum of ₹25,000 is provided as Sales Tax Liability in the books for the financial year 2012-13. If the amount so provided is paid before due date of filing the return, the same may be allowed as a deduction in the year of provision i.e. previous year 2012-13 or it may be claimed as a deduction in the year of payment.
- (v) Section 40A(3) provides that where an assessee incurs any expenditure in respect of which payment or aggregate of payments in excess of ₹20,000 is made otherwise than by Account Payee Cheque or Account Payee Demand Draft, whole of such expenditure shall be disallowed.
In the given case, the assessee has paid the technical consultant ₹20,000 only as consultancy fees and the same shall be allowed as a deduction.
- (vi) Loss of stock in trade by fire or other natural calamities or due to negligence of the employees is an allowable deduction.
Therefore, in the given case, the loss of stock in trade amounting to ₹20,000 in fire can be claimed as deduction by the assessee.
- (vii) Technical know-how, being an intangible asset, is eligible for depreciation @25% on Written Down Value Method.
In the given case, ₹1,50,000 has been paid in lump sum for acquisition of technical know-how. Hence, depreciation @ 25% amounting to ₹37,500 can be charged against revenue for the year.
- (viii) Section 40A(2) provides that if any payment, in respect of goods, services or facilities supplied or provided by a relative or a person having substantial interest, is considered to be excessive or unreasonable as compared with the market value of such goods, services or facilities, then the excessive or unreasonable sum shall not be allowed as a deduction.
Section 40A(3) provides that where an assessee incurs any expenditure in respect of which payment or aggregate of payments in excess of ₹20,000 is made otherwise than by Account Payee Cheque or Account Payee Demand Draft, whole of such expenditure shall be disallowed.
Payment made by the company to the brother of the director of the company, is covered under Sec. 40A(2).

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

Therefore, excessive fees of ₹20,000 have to be disallowed.

Provisions of Sec. 40A(3) apply to the balance payment since it has been made by bearer cheque. Accordingly, the balance of ₹22,000 shall have to be disallowed in computing taxable business profits.

- (ix) Section 32(2) unabsorbed depreciation of a discontinued business can be set-off against the profits of any other business and thereafter against the income of any other head.

Hence, in the given case, the set-off unabsorbed depreciation of ₹75,000 of a discontinued business is allowable.

- (x) Presentation of wrist watches to customers is allowed as expenditure on advertisement under Sec. 37(1). The whole amount of ₹10,00,000 is allowable as deduction as there is no ceiling limit for gift articles.

(a) From the following information, find out the net income and tax liability of Mr. Roy (29 years), a resident individual, for the assessment year 2013-14:

Particulars	₹
Salary	3,72,000

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

Business Income (Non-speculative business)	(-)32,000
Long- term Capital Gain	60,000
Short- term Capital Gain	15,000
Winning from horse race (gross)	45,000
Total	4,60,000

Donation to the Government of India for family planning	76,000
Donation to the Central welfare Fund of India army	5,000

Solution:

In this case, taxable income does not exceed ₹5,00,000. The maximum marginal rate of tax is 20% which is not more than the tax incidence on Long-term Capital Gain. Therefore, it is better to set off business loss of ₹32,000 against Long-term Capital Gain of ₹60,000. Consequently, Long-term Capital Gain is reduced to ₹28,000.

Tax liability shall be determined as under —

Particulars	₹	₹

Notes:

- The amount of deduction under section 80DD is ₹50,000 irrespective of the expenditure incurred or deposited.
- Deduction under section 80G - First one has to compute adjusted gross total income which is as follows —

It is, therefore, better to opt for the option 2.

(c) Mac, a foreign technician, is sent by F Ltd., a foreign company, to India in terms of a collaboration agreement dated 1st February, 2010 with J Ltd., an Indian company, to assist the Indian company in setting up a plant. The fees charged by F Ltd. are ₹6,000 per day for every day stay in India of Mac for such work. Mac draws total emoluments of ₹2,500 per day out of which a sum of ₹1,500 per day is paid by J Ltd. Mac stays in India for 80 days. What are the tax effects in India of the transactions?

Solution:

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

Assessment of Mac: It is assumed that Mac has come to India as an employee of the foreign company and not of the Indian Company. As his stay in India is for 80 days i.e. less than 90 days, his salary is not deductible in computing business income of his employer. Salary income is taxable in his hands as it accrued, arose and received in India.

Assessment of F Ltd.: The entire receipt of ₹6,000 per day for 80 days i.e. ₹4,80,000 becomes chargeable to tax in its hands as fees for technical services u/s 9(1)(vi) @10% plus surcharge plus EC & SHEC as per section 115A.

Assessment of J Ltd.: Since Mac comes to India to assist J Ltd. in setting up the plant, the expenses incurred on this account by J Ltd. are in the nature of expenses incurred for erection of machinery and putting the items of plant in working condition and can, therefore, be capitalised and treated as part of the "actual cost" of plant and machinery.

Solution:

(b) During the Previous Year 2012-13, Mrs. Ghose (aged 49 years) pays the following installments of advance tax :

On September 15, 2012	8,000
On December 15, 2012	13,000
On March 15, 2013	17,000
On March 16, 2013	22,000

Mrs. Ghose files return of ₹8,00,000. Assessment is also completed on the basis of income returned by Mrs. Ghose after making addition of ₹50,000 (date of assessment order: November 25, 2013). Mrs. Ghose is entitled to tax credit of ₹15,300 on account of tax deducted at source. Compute interest under sections 234B and 234C.

Solution:

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

Income(8,00,000+50,000)	8,50,000
Tax on ₹ 8,50,000 (including Education Cess and SHEC)	1,03,000

Advance tax paid during 2012-13 [i.e., ₹(8,000 + 13,000 + 17,000 + 22,000)]	60,000

Interest liability under section 234B:

Since advance tax during the previous year 2012-13 is less than 90% of assessed tax, Mrs. Ghose is liable to pay interest under section 234B, i.e., on the shortfall of ₹27,700 (being ₹87,700 – ₹60,000) for 8 months (₹27,700 × 1/100 × 8) which comes to ₹2,216.

Interest liability under section 234C:

Tax on ₹ 8,00,000 = 90,000 + 3% on Education and Higher Education Cess = 92,700

Due date	Advance Tax Payment ₹	Advance Tax paid ₹	Cumulative Advance Tax paid before due date ₹	Shortfall in Payment ₹	Surplus ₹	Months	Interest @ 1% p.m. ₹

(c) Samir fails to quote PAN as per the provisions of Section 139A. What is the consequence of such failure?

Answer:

As per section 272B(2), if a person fails to comply with the provisions of section 139A, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall have to pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ₹10,000.

Hence, in the above case, Samir has to pay penalty as directed by the Assessing Officer.

(d) The return of S & sons was taken up for scrutiny assessment by issuing notice u/s 143(2). S & sons were in the business of plying of goods carriages owning 9 lorries and had returned an income of ₹5,40,000. The Assessing Officer noticed that a cash payment of ₹55,000 made to a single party on the same day for the purpose of purchase of tyres and spares had been claimed as expenses. He wants to add this to the returned income. Is the AO correct in his view?

Solution:

Presumptive income u/s 44AE for heavy goods vehicle is ₹5,000 per month or part thereof, from date of ownership.

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

In the instant case, S & sons have operated 9 Heavy Goods vehicles and have returned an income of ₹5,40,000 i.e. ₹5,000 p.m. per vehicle x 12 Months x 9 Vehicles, by opting for provisions u/s 44AE. Hence, in respect of income declared by S & sons, no deduction can be made u/s 30 to 38 or any addition u/s 40. Therefore, the action of the Assessing Officer is not correct.

(a) For the assessment year 2013-14, net agricultural income of an assessee is ₹95,000 and non-agricultural income is ₹14,85,000. The taxpayer contributes ₹80,000 towards Public Provident Fund. Finds out the tax if the taxpayer is (a) A, an individual (27 years), (b) B, a HUF, (c) C, a firm assessed as such, (d) D Ltd. an Indian company.

Solution:

Computation of tax in the case of A (Individual) and B (HUF) as follows:

Particulars	Amount (₹)
Gross Total Income	14,85,000
Less: deduction under section 80C	80,000
Total Income	14,05,000
Income- tax on ₹15,00,000 (i.e., agricultural income: ₹95,000 + non-agricultural income: ₹14,05,000) [a]	2,80,000
Income-tax on agricultural income: ₹95,000 + exempted slab of income ₹2,00,000 [b]	9,500
Income-tax computed at [a] minus income-tax computed at [b]	2,70,500
Add: surcharge	Nil
Tax and surcharge	2,70,500
Add: Education cess @ 2%	5,410
Add: Secondary and higher education cess @ 1%	2,705
Tax payable	2,78,615

In the case of C (a firm) and D Ltd. tax liability will be as follows:

Particulars	Amount (₹)
Tax on non-agricultural income of ₹14,85,000 @30% [agricultural income is not considered in the case of firm and companies]	4,45,500
Add: Surcharge	Nil
Tax and surcharge	4,45,500
Add: Education cess @ 2%	8,910
Add: Secondary and higher education cess @ 1%	4,455
Tax liability	4,58,865

(b) Briefly describe the conditions that are required to be satisfied in order to claim exemption under section 11.

Answer:

The following essential conditions are to be fulfilled for claiming exemption u/s 11:

- (i) The property from which income of the trust is derived should be held for charitable or religious purposes. In case of a charitable trust created on or after 1st April, 1962, the further conditions are:

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

(B) no part of the income should be enure, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of the settler or other specified persons; and

(C) the property should be held wholly for charitable purposes.

The conditions mentioned at (B) and (C) also apply to religious trusts created on or after 1st April, 1962.

- (ii) The exemption is confined to only such portion of the trust's income which is applied to charitable or religious purposes or is accumulated for applying to such purposes within the limits of accumulation permitted u/s 11(1) and (2).
- (iii) The exemption is restricted to such portion of the trust's income as is applied to charitable or religious purposes in India except in cases enumerated in Sec.11(1)(c).
- (iv) If the trust property comprises of a business undertaking, the income shown in the books of account should not be less than the income determined by the Assessing Officer according to provisions of the Income-tax Act. From A.Y. 1992-93, trusts or institution can carry out business activities if such business activities are incidental to the attainment of its objectives and separate books of accounts are maintained.
- (v) The trust should make an application in Form No. 10A to the Commissioner of Income Tax within one year of creation of trust or the institution and such trust or institution get registered u/s 12AA.
- (vi) Limit for audit of charitable institutions rationalized [Section 12A]

- (vii) The funds of the trust should be invested or deposited in any one or more of the modes or forms [Sec. 11(5)] such as —

 - any other form or mode of investment/deposit as may be prescribed in this behalf.

(c) 'Balancing Charge will arise when an electricity company sells its assets' – Do you agree with the statement? Answer with reason.

Answer:

In the case of an undertaking engaged in the generation or generation and distribution of power, option is available to claim depreciation on straight line method with reference to each individual asset. If such option is exercised, block of asset concept does not apply. In the case of such an assessee, where any building, machinery, plant or furniture is transferred for a consideration which is more than the depreciated value, the surplus to the extent of depreciation already allowed shall be assessed as business income. This is normally described as 'Balancing Charge' [Section 41(2)].

Hence, it is not necessary that every time an electricity company sells its assets, 'Balancing Charge' will arise.

(a) Avik, a trader, sells goods on credit to Aman (outstanding balance on 1st April, 2011 - ₹50,000 and total bills issued during the financial year 2011-12 - ₹70,000). Out of ₹1,20,000, he recovers only ₹20,000 from Aman during the financial year 2012-13. On 31st March, 2012, he writes off ₹40,000 as bad debt. However, on 30th December, 2012, Avik recovers from Aman as full and final settlement (i) ₹20,000 or (ii) ₹59,000 or (iii) ₹80,000. Find out the tax consequences for different assessment years.

Solution:

Assessment Year 2012-13 – During the previous year 2012-13, Avik writes off ₹40,000 as bad debt. It is, therefore, deductible for the assessment year 2012-13.

Assessment Year 2013-14 – Tax treatment, when recovery is made during the previous year 2012-13, will be as follows –

Amount of debt as on 1 st April, 2013 (i.e. ₹1,20,000 - ₹20,000 - ₹40,000 being the amount written off) [1] (₹)	Amount recovered as full and final settlement [2] (₹)	Income /(Deduction) [2-1] (₹)
(i) 60,000	20,000	(40,000)
(ii) 60,000	59,000	(1,000)
(iii) 60,000	80,000	20,000

In situation (i) ₹40,000 is deductible as bad debt, if he writes off ₹40,000 in his books of accounts as bad debt during the previous year 2012-13. Likewise, in situation (ii) ₹1,000 is deductible as bad debt, if Avik writes off ₹1,000 in his books of account for the year ended 31st March, 2013. In situation (iii), however, ₹20,000, being the excess recovery, is taxable as business income by virtue of section 41(4) for the previous year 2012-13 [irrespective of the fact whether the business is in existence during the previous year 2012-13 or not].

(b) Ganesh had placed a deposit of ₹15,00,000 in a bank on which he received interest of ₹95,000. He had also borrowed ₹10,00,000 from the same bank on the security of the deposit and was liable to pay ₹65,000 by way of interest to the bank. He therefore offered the difference between two amounts of ₹30,000 [i.e. ₹95,000 - ₹65,000] as Income from Other Sources. Is this correct?

Solution:

Section 57 provides that any expenditure (not being capital expenditure) expended to earn income chargeable under the head "Income from Other Sources" will be allowed as deduction against such income.

Interest on Bank FD was the income in the hands of the assessee. The interest on the loan taken from bank on that deposit is not an allowable expenditure as it is not expended to earn the interest on Bank FD.

Therefore, in the given case, the interest of ₹65,000 paid by Ganesh is not allowable as deduction and the entire interest of ₹95,000 is fully taxable.

(c) Mr. Singh gifts ₹5,00,000 to Mrs. Singh on 1st January 2013. Mrs. Singh invests the same in her existing crockery business where she has already invested ₹5,00,000. Mrs. Singh earns ₹10,00,000 from the business during the previous year 2012-2013. How would you assess the profits?

Solution:

The previous year of the existing business is April to March. On the first day of the previous year (i.e. 1st April 2012), total investment has come from Mrs. Singh account. As the proportion of the gifted amount from spouse on 1st April 2012 to the total investment in business on the same day is NIL, the whole of the profits of ₹10,00,000 for the previous year 2012-13 will be included in the total income of Mrs. Singh.

(a) Sanrakshan is an institution, having main object 'preservation of Wildlife; used the entire income derived from an activity in the nature of trade for its main object during the previous year ended on 31.03.2013. The institution seeks your opinion to know whether such utilization of its income be treated for "Charitable Purpose"? Would your answer be different, if the main object of the institution is "Advancement of object of general public utility"?

Solution:

W.r.e.f. assessment year 2009-10 preservation of Environment, which includes water sheds forests and wildlife, is treated as charitable purpose. The entire income derived from an activity in the nature of trade and applied for its main object will be considered as charitable purpose and the exemption u/s 11 shall apply.

If the object of the Charitable Trust is general public utility and it involves in carrying of any activity in the nature of trade, commerce or business, or rendering any service in relation to trade, commerce, or business for cess, fess or other consideration and the aggregate value of receipts from the said activities does not exceed ₹25,00,000, the benefit of exemption shall continue.

(b) In an order of assessment for the assessment year 2012-13, an assessee noticed a mistake for which application u/s 154 was moved and the order was rectified. Subsequently, the assessee moved further application for rectification u/s 154, which was rejected by the Assessing Officer on the ground that the order once rectified, cannot be rectified again. Is the contention of the Assessing Officer correct?

Solution:

Section 154 provides that any order passed by the Income Tax Authority can be rectified provided there is an error apparent from the record which may be a mistake of fact or mistake of law but not a disputable one. The order can be rectified within 4 years from the end of the financial years in which such order was passed.

Order once amended can be rectified again provided there is a mistake apparent on record, which is rectifiable. In case of re-assessment, the time limit of 4 years for rectification runs from the date of re-assessment order and not from the date of original assessment order [Hind wire Industries Ltd. 212 ITR 639 (SC)].

Therefore, in the given case, the second application of the assessee cannot be rejected by the Assessing Officer, provided the application is made within the time limit of 4 years as mentioned above. Therefore, the action of the Assessing Officer is not correct.

(c) "An advance ruling can become void" – Discuss.

Answer:

As per section 245T, an advance ruling can be void ab initio by the Authority for Advance Ruling if, on a representation made to it by the Commissioner or otherwise, it finds that the ruling has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation of facts. Thereafter, all the provisions of the Act will apply as if no such advance ruling has been made. A copy of such order shall be sent to the applicant and the Commissioner.

20.

(a) The return of income filed by Mr. Hari for the assessment year 2011-12 has been accepted under the provisions of Sec. 143(1) of the income Tax Act. Can the Commission of Income Tax interfere under his revisional powers and modify the assessment – (a) In a case where intimation is served u/s 143(1) and (b) In a case where no intimation is served.

Answer:

Power of Commissioner to revise intimation u/s 143(1):

Intimation sent by the Assessing Officer, in law, will have to be understood as having the force of an order on self-assessment and it shall be deemed to be notice of demand issued u/s 156. Such intimation is also subject to revision u/s 263 of the Act by the Commissioner.

In the given case, intimation has been served on the assessee and no assessment order has been passed. In view of the above, Commissioner can interfere under his revisional powers to modify an intimation.

No intimation is served:

When no intimation is served, (i.e., where no sum is payable or refundable to the assessee), then the return of income as acknowledged shall be deemed to be intimation u/s 143(1) and hence the Commissioner can interfere with his revisional powers and modify the assessment under sections 263 and 264.

(b) 'The powers of the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) to enhance the assessment are plenary and quite wide' – Discuss.

Answer:

The Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) has powers to call for information u/s 133, to direct discovery and production of evidence u/s 131, rectification of mistake u/s 154, inspect register of Companies u/s 134 etc.

Section 251 provides that the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) can enhance the assessment or the penalty during the course of appeal before him. However, such enhancement can be made only after a reasonable opportunity of being heard is provided to the assessee. Further, such enhancements can be appealed against by the assessee before the Income tax Appellate Tribunal.

Based on the above points, it is correct to state that powers of the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) are wide and extensive.

(c) "An appeal shall lie to High Court against the order of the Tribunal" – Discuss the statement's correctness or otherwise.

Answer:

The Tribunal is the final fact finding Appellate Authority and consequentially any order by the Tribunal on facts shall be final and cannot be taken up by the High Court.

Where order issued by the Tribunal involves a substantial question of Law, then either the Assessee or the Department can file an appeal to the High Court within 120 days from the date of receipt of Tribunal's order.

In view of the above, the order of Tribunal shall lie to the High Court, if it involves substantial question of law.

(d) Samadhan Ltd. entered into an agreement for the warehousing of its products with Life Warehousing and deducted tax at source as per provisions of Section 194C out of warehousing charges paid during the year ended on 31.03.2013. The Assessing Officer while completing the assessment for A.Y. 2013-2014 of Samadhan Ltd. asked the Company by treating the warehousing charges as rent as defined in section 194-I to make payment of difference amount of TDS with interest. It submitted by the Company that the receipt had already paid tax on the entire amount of warehousing charges and therefore, now the difference amount of TDS can be not recovered. However, it will make the payment of due interest on the difference amount of TDS.

Solution:

TDS has to be deducted u/s 194-I from payment made towards warehousing charges [Circular No. 718/22.8.1995].

Further, No demand u/s 201(1) should be enforced after the tax deductor has satisfied the Officer-In-Charge of TDS that the taxes due have been paid by the deductee-assessee. However, this will not alter the liability to charge interest u/s 201(1A) till the date of payment of taxes by the deductee or the liability for penalty u/s 271C. [Hindustan Coco coal Beverage (P) Ltd vs. CIT 293 ITR 226 (SC)].

In the instant case, Samadhan Ltd. has deducted tax u/s 194C at 1% instead of 10% u/s 194-I. However it is mentioned that warehousing has already paid the tax on its income from Samadhan Ltd.

If Samadhan Ltd. proves to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer that the taxes have paid on the relevant income by the deductee, then the Assessing Officer cannot recover the TDS amount from it. However, Samadhan Ltd. is liable for interest on the differential amount at 1% per month or part of a month.

(a) Rishi has the following assets on 31st March, 2013:

Asset	Market Value (₹)	Loan Outstanding (₹)
Gold	87,00,000	10,00,000
Residential House at Pune	45,00,000	2,00,000
Residential House at Andheri	90,00,000	27,00,000
Residential House at Mahape (Let out though out the year)	65,00,000	11,00,000

Motor Car	9,00,000	3,00,000
Bank deposit	58,00,000	Nil
Commercial complex at Andheri having 25 offices	2,50,00,000	1,55,00,000

Besides above mentioned loans, Rishi took a loan of ₹1,00,000 from his bank for his brother's marriage. Moreover, out of loan of ₹2,50,000 taken for boat, he utilized ₹50,000 for financing expenses on his foreign visit.

Determine his net wealth.

Solution:

Net wealth of Rishi shall be determined as under:

Asset	Market Value (₹)	Loan outstanding (₹)
Gold	87,00,000	10,00,000

Boat	1,50,000	2,00,000
Motor Car	9,00,000	3,00,000

Total	1,42,50,000	17,00,000

Net Wealth = Market value of assets – Loan outstanding
= ₹(1,42,50,000 – 17,00,000) = ₹1,25,50,000

Note: Loan for brother's marriage and loan utilised for foreign visit are not deductible.

(b) Explain the taxability of the following in the net wealth computation of Alope:

(i) Gifts of jewellery made to wife ₹80,000, Market value on valuation date is ₹2,50,000.

(ii) He gifted cash ₹1,00,000 to his son's wife, which she deposited in bank.

(iii) Urban land transferred by him to his minor handicapped child.

(iv) A minor son of Alope receives income by acting in films. Out of this income, he purchased a Car and a residential house; value of these on valuation date is ₹35,00,000.

(v) He transferred a house valued at ₹45,00,000 to his married daughter but he has reserved the right to live in that house for whole life.

Solution:

- (i) Since the jewellery transferred has been made without adequate consideration, the value of jewellery on valuation date will be included in the wealth of Alope.
- (ii) Although the gift has been made without any adequate consideration but as on valuation date it is in form of fixed deposits, which is not an asset u/s 2 (ea), hence it is not included in the wealth of Alope.
- (iii) Assets held by minor handicapped child are not taxable in the hands of parents, hence the value of urban land is not to be included in the wealth of Alope, but it is chargeable in hands of the child.
- (iv) The assets acquired by the minor child out of his income arising on account of any manual work done by him or activity involving application of his specialized knowledge or skill is not included in the wealth tax of parents, hence the assets valued at ₹35,00,000 will be included in the wealth of the child.
- (v) Alope transferred his house to his married daughter. Assessee: Mr. Das

Valuation Date: 31.3.2013
Computation of Value of House Property

Assessment Year: 2013-14

Step I: Computation of Gross Maintainable Rent (GMR)

Particulars	₹	₹
Actual Annual Rent [₹1,50,000 x 12/10]		1,80,000
Add: Municipal tax paid by the Tenant	15,000
Add: 1/9th of Actual Rent Receivable as repair expenses are borne by the tenant [₹1,80,000/9]	20,000
Interest on Refundable Security Deposit [₹60,000 x 15% x 10/12]	7,500	42,500
GROSS MAINTAINABLE RENT (GMR)		2,22,500

Step II: Computation of Net Maintainable Rent (NMR)

Particulars	₹	₹
Gross Maintainable Rent (GMR)		2,22,500
Less: Municipal Taxes levied by the local authority	15,000
Less: 15% of Gross Maintainable Rent [₹2,22,500 x 15%]	33,375	48,375
NET MAINTAINABLE RENT (NMR)		1,74,125

Step III: Capitalisation of the Net Maintainable Rent (CNMR) (Assumed that unexpired lease period is more than 50 Years)

NMR × Multiple Factor for an Unexpired Lease Period = ₹1,74,125 × 10 = ₹17,41,250

Step IV: Addition of Premium to SNMR in case of excess inbuilt area:

Particulars	₹
Capitalisation of the Net Maintainable Asset	17,41,250
Add: Premium for excess of 10.5% unbuilt area over specified area [30% or CNMR]	5,22,375
Value of House Property as per Wealth Tax Act	22,63,625

(b) Binay, Karta of HUF, out of HUF funds gifted to his nephew an amount of ₹3,00,000 on 01.01.2013. The coparceners of the HUF challenged the gifts and as a consequence gifts were held to be void. Discuss whether the amount of ₹3,00,000 is taxable as wealth of Binay HUF for the valuation dated 31.03.2013.

Solution:

As the amount actually gifted by the HUF, the provisions of Sec. 4(5A) are not attracted. As on the valuation date 31.03.2013, the said amount of ₹3,00,000 does not belong to the HUF. Therefore, the same cannot be charged to Wealth Tax in the hands of Binay HUF. Hence, in the case, challenging by the coparceners is of no consequence.

The expenses incurred each year were ₹8,000, ₹2,000, ₹4,000 and ₹6,000 respectively. Calculate the value of life interest of Sudhir in the property so settled on the valuation date 31.3.2013, with the help of the factor of 9.267.

Solution:

(c) Write short notes on “Tax Haven”.

Answer:

Many fiscally sovereign territories and countries use tax and non-tax incentives to attract activities in the financial and other services sectors. These territories and countries offer the foreign investor an environment with a no or nominal taxation which is usually coupled with a reduction in regulatory or administrative constraints. The activity is usually not subject to information exchange because, for example, of strict bank secrecy provisions. These jurisdictions are known as tax havens e.g. Singapore, Capetown, Canary, Nevada, etc. In other words, any country which modifies its tax laws to attract foreign capital could be considered as tax havens. The central feature of a tax haven is that its laws and other measures can be used to evade or avoid the tax laws or regulations of other jurisdictions. A tax haven is a state or a country or a territory where income tax is levied at a low rate or no tax at all is levied. Individuals and/or corporate entities can find it attractive to establish shell subsidiaries or move themselves to areas where reduced or nil tax is charged. This creates a situation of tax competition among Governments though tax haven countries may not always be profitable. Some tax havens have become failure like Liberia, Tangiers, etc.

(a) K Ltd., a Korean non-resident company, had entered into an agreement for designing, fabricating, hook-up and commissioning of a platform in Bombay High with Q Ltd., an Indian company. The agreement entered into was in two parts, one for the value to be charged for fabrication of structure in Korea for ₹25 Crores (having element of profit in it of ₹5 Crores) and other for the installation and commissioning of the structure in Bombay High for ₹17 Crores (having element of profit in it of ₹2 Crores). The Korean Company be also setting up an office in India for the activity of installation and commissioning of the platform which is likely to be completed in 9 months.

On these facts, you are required to answer -

- (i) Whether the office of K Ltd. to be opened in India be considered as its "Permanent Establishment" / "Business Connection"?
- (ii) State the amount of profits, if any, of the non-resident company subject to tax in India.
- (iii) What will the amount of income be subject to tax in India, when the ALP of the fabrications of structure is determined at ₹24 Crores?(Assume tolerance limit 5%)

Solution:

- (i) The Korean Company for the purpose of commissioning of the platform in Bombay High Seas shall be having an office in India for a period of around 9 months. Maintaining of an office by the non-resident in India for the conduct of its business shall be treated as a 'Permanent Establishment'.
- (ii) Taxable Profits:
 - (A) In a contract for fabrication, designing, hook-up and commissioning of platform in Bombay High, fabrication work was completed in Korea. PE was established in India after fabrication but before installation. Hence, profits relating to fabrication in Korea are not taxable in India but income relating to installation is taxable. [CIT vs. Hyundai Heavy Industries Co. Ltd. 291 ITR (SC) 482]
 - (B) Accordingly, the profits attributable to the PE are only ₹2 Crores relating to activity of commissioning, hook-up and installation of the platform in Bombay High, which is being conducted / supervised from the office in India.
 - (C) The profits of ₹5 Crores relating to the fabrication work of the platform shall not be taxable in India because the completed structure is to be supplied from Korea. Such profits are not attributed to the PE, because the work of fabrication was completed in Korea prior to coming into existence of the PE connection in India.
- (iii) The difference of ₹1 Crore (₹25 Crores - ₹24 Crores) shall not be taxable as it does not exceed 5% of the Arms Length Price. Therefore only ₹2 Crores is taxable in India.

(b) A foreign company has established back office in India. Can it be considered as Permanent Establishment?

Answer:

Back office is not a Permanent Establishment. Hence, the back office established by the foreign company cannot be considered as Permanent Establishment.

(c) "In case of International Transaction, Assessing Officer never considers the Arm's Length Price which is determined by an assessee" – Explain the correctness of the statement.

Answer:

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

The Assessing Officer shall not make any adjustment to the arm's length price determined by the taxpayer, if such price is up to 5% less or up to 5% more than the price determined by the Assessing Officer. In such cases the price declared by the taxpayer may be accepted. [Circular No. 12/2001 dated 23/08/2001]

However, Finance Act, 2012 has reduced the tolerance limit from 5% to 3%.

(d) What do you mean by the term "Tested Party"?

Answer:

As per the OECD guidelines, the tested party is ought to be the enterprise that offers a higher degree of comparability or would require lesser adjustment with uncontrolled companies. - (ii) R Ltd. installed an air conditioner costing ₹80,000 at the residence of a director as per terms of his appointment; but treats it as fitted in quality control section in the factory. This is done with the objective to treat it as plant for the purpose of computing depreciation.
- (iii) G Ltd. maintains register of Tax Deduction at Source affected by it to enable timely compliance.
- (iv) J Ltd. issues a credit note for ₹50,000 for brokerage payable to H, who is son of J, managing director of the company. The purpose is to increase his income from ₹1,50,000 to ₹2,00,000 and reduce its income correspondingly.

Solution:

Particulars	The Act is considered as	Reason
(i) F deposits ₹70,000 in PPF Account so as to reduce Total Income from ₹3,70,000 to ₹3,00,000.	Tax Planning	Reducing liability by use of beneficial provisions of law

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

(b) R & Co. Ltd. started two separate industrial undertakings – Unit I and Unit II. Unit I prima facie is eligible for deduction u/s 80IB. For the year ending 31.03.2013, the profit of Unit I was ₹6 Lakhs while Unit II suffered a loss of ₹2 Lakhs.

The Assessing Officer has allowed the deduction u/s 80IB on the net profit of ₹4 Lakhs. Discuss the validity of the order of the Assessing Officer.

Solution:

According to section 80IB deduction is available in respect of the profits or gains derived from the eligible industrial undertaking of the assessee. Section 80IB expressly provides that the deduction under this section shall be calculated on the gains derived from such undertaking.

In view of the above, R & Co. Ltd. is entitled for deduction u/s 80IB at 30% of income derived from Unit I, not on the net income from Unit II.

Hence, the eligible deduction for the assessment year 2013-14 is ₹1,80,000 (i.e. ₹6,00,000 × 30%).

Total Income shall be Net Income from both the undertakings Less Deduction u/s 80IB i.e. ₹4,00,000 Less ₹1,80,000 = ₹2,20,000. Therefore, the action of the Assessing Officer is not valid in law.

(a) ABC LLP has income of ₹14,00,000 under the head “Profit and Gains of Business or Profession”. One of its businesses is eligible for deduction @100% of profits u/s 80IB for the assessment year 2013-14. The profit from such business included in the business income is ₹7,00,000. Compute the tax payable by the LLP assuming it has no other income during the previous year 2012-13.

Solution:

Computation of tax payable under Income Tax of ABC LLP for the A.Y. 2013-14 relating to the P.Y. 2012-13

Particulars	Amount (₹)
Profit and Gains from Business or Profession	14,00,000
Less: Deduction u/s 80IB	7,00,000
Total Income	7,00,000
Tax Payable (₹7,00,000 × 30%)	2,10,000
Add: Education Cess @ 2%	4,200
Add: Secondary and Higher Education Cess @ 1%	2,100
Total Tax Payable	2,16,300

Computation of Alternate Minimum Tax (AMT) of ABC LLP for the A.Y. 2013-14 relating to the P.Y. 2012-13

Particulars	Amount (₹)
Total Income as per the provisions of Income Tax Act, 1961	7,00,000
Add: Deduction u/s 80IB	7,00,000
Adjusted Total Income	14,00,000
Alternate Minimum Tax Payable (₹14,00,000 × 18.5%)	2,59,000
Add: Education Cess @ 2%	5,180

Revisionary Test Paper_Intermediate_Syllabus 2008_Dec2013

Add: Secondary and Higher Education Cess @ 1%	2,590
Total Tax Payable	2,66,770

- (i) Since the Income Tax payable as per the provision of the Income Tax Act is less than the Alternate Minimum Tax, the Adjusted Total Income of ₹14,00,000 would be deemed to be the Total Income of the LLP and the LLP would be liable to pay tax @18.5% thereof.
- (ii) The amount of tax payable by ABC LLP for the A.Y. 2013-14 would therefore be ₹2,66,770.
- (iii) ABC LLP is eligible for credit to the extent of ₹50,470 (i.e. ₹2,66,770 – ₹2,16,300) to be set off in the year in which tax on Total Income computed under the regular provision of the Act exceeds the Alternate Minimum Tax. (c) Is tax planning necessary? Does it have any effect on the rate of tax?

Answer:

The tax paid is an addition to the cost. Just as every businessman tries to maximize his profit by reducing the cost, he should also arrange his affairs in such a way, that he pays the least amount of tax. This, however, should be done within the four corners of law and there should be no element of fraud in it.

Tax planning has effect on the rate of tax. As dispersal of income over different taxable entities, slab rate can be reduced.
