

Paper 6 : Laws, Ethics and Governance

Question wise performance are as follows :

Q No.	Observations
1 (I – xx) Compulsory Question	Good excepting vii, ix, xi, xii, xix, xx.

Other than compulsory

2 a(i)	Average – Majority answered but without giving rule provision.
2 a(ii)	Not satisfactory.
2 (b)	Average, could not understand the question.
3 a, 3b	Average – many avoided, wrong answer by many.
3 c	Average – could not present properly.
4 a (i)	Poor.
4 a (ii)	Average – poor presentation.
4 b, 4c	Poor – systematic approach was lacking.
5 a	Poor – answered from common sense.
5 a (ii)	Very Poor.
5 b	Average – wrong answer by many. Systematic approach was lacking.
5 c	Poor – many avoided this question.
6 a	Poor – wrong answer by majority common sense answer.
6 b, 6c	Poor – proper reason was lacking.
7a, 7b	Poor – wrong answer.
7c	Poor – common sense answer.
8a	Average – response poor.
8b	Poor – wrong answer
9a	Wrong answer by many.
9b	Wrong answer – very poor response.
9c	Average – Vague answer – due to not studying the book.
10a, 10b	→ [More or less satisfactory – majority attempted.
12a, 12b
11a, 11b
	Average. Could not answer ^{covering covering} correctly all the required basic points.

Suggestion for improvement of Examinees performance:

It is suggested :-(i) to keep in touch with periodical amendments, to study the Institute's Study Notes and books of latest edition. (ii) thorough and in depth study is necessary. (iii) careful reading and understanding the meaning and basic requirement of question, (iv) to avoid repetition of same points, (v) to provide margin on both sides of the answer books, to provide adequate space in between two answers , to present in a legible manner (vi) not to write vague answers (vii) to improve handwriting (viii) to improve communication skills etc.