The Institute of Cost Accountants of India (ICAI), a statutory body under an Act of Parliament, and National Institute of Securities Market (NISM), an educational initiative of SEBI jointly organized a National Seminar on “Capital Markets in India: Governance & Reforms” on April 28, 2015 at Rotary Sadan, Kolkata, with the determination to put an audacious thought over the governance and reforms development of the capital markets in India.

The event was Co-sponsored and participated by CSE, SIDBI, CMA, CISI, corporate houses, various banks, eminent professors and researchers of this field. Distinguished personality Shri S. Ramani, Whole Time Member of SEBI being the Chair Guest of the inaugural session deliberated by Shri S. Ramani, Whole Time Member of SEBI and rendered the special address. The same was followed by the welcome address given by CMA (Dr.) A.S. Durga Prasad, President, ICAI-CMA.

The keynote was delivered by Shri Sandip Ghose, CMA, Director, NISM. CMA N. K. Bhola, RD, Eastern Region, ICMAI, rendered the special address. The eminent dignitaries feel that one needs to have a specialized knowledge on Corporate Governance and there is no denying that Truth and Integrity will always come from good behaviour.

The welcome address was given by CMA (Dr.) Dalaprayagopal Nandy, Director Research & Journal of ICAI-CMA. Further, quarterly publication of ICAI Research Bulletin, Vol.41, No. I, April, 2015 issue got released during the inaugural session of the event.

In the Panel Discussion-I – Governance & Growth, Shri N. Harishankar, CMA, SEBI, emphasised over the genuine importance of the views raised by Shri Bhattcharyya and stated few amendments made in Companies Act 2013. Shri R.K. Chatterjee, Executive VP, ITC Ltd made a serious note that the government has to be an enabler and a good governance could provide the desired result in the desired approach. Though the panel discussions proved to be worthy, a relevant judgement was given by Shri T.K. Coudhury, Former Chairman, ICRA on the demerits of corporate governance and fetches the dark sides of this system that would mount the hill tops without the stones. To conclude the whole seminar with the duplex communication, Kevin Moore, Global Business Development Director, CISI, UK held a decision making session for a good amount of time that too with a serious voting ballot.

In the second Panel Discussion, on Market Reforms, Shri B. Raj, Regional Director, RBI, Kolkata, Shri B. Madhav Reddy, MD & CEO, CSE, CMA (Dr.) Sander Ram Korivi, Dean, NISM, Shri Tanmay Sandipardhigy, Consulting Editor, MINT discussed on various market reforms, debt and Capital market and created an impact over the audience who carry good ear and aspires to give knockout punch to the capital market. The Seminar ended with the summing up and valedictory address by CMA (Dr.) Latha Chari, President, NISM and vote of thanks by CMA (Dr.) Sumita Chakraborty, Jr. Director, Research, ICAI-CMA.

Contact Us at: E-research@icmai.in harttered Institute for Securities & Investment (CISI) Global Business Development Director Kevin Moore has said his institute is working in India—producing financial services industry qualifications, continuing professional development, and operational areas in banking industry. Mr. Moore was in Kolkata on Tuesday to deliver an interactive presentation on “Integrity at Work” based on simple principles like Honesty, Openness, Transparency and Fairness of an event organized by the Institute of Cost accountants of India.
Ph: +91-33-2454 0086/87/184
Fax: +91-33-2454 0063

C

Kevin Moore
Global Business Development Director (CISI)

C

The Beveraging Solution Team of The Indian Express Group

READ. ENGAGE. DELIVER.