3-DAY ICWAI CONVENTION OPENS TODAY

ENS Economic Bureau
Chennai, January 5

THE Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India (ICWAI) is organising the 52nd National Cost Convention-2011, which opens here on Friday.

Announcing the three-day event, ICWAI President Brijmohan Sharma said that the institute will sign a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with the National Institute of Accountants (NIA), Australia, by the end of this month to enable cooperation between the two institutes for the benefit of their members and students.

ICWAI, which had inked a deal with the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA), US, would also enter into a similar agreement with the respective Canadian body.

Sharma said ICWAI has decided to introduce e-learning for the certificate course for the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

In addition, a certificate course in cost accounting would be started with a view to creating more professionals at the junior level category.
