

Publication	News Today
Edition	Chennai
Date	06/01/2011
Page	03

ICWAI to award seven outstanding members

President of Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India (ICWAI) Brijmohan Sharma addressing a press meet in Chennai yesterday. ICWAI vice-president M Gopalakrishnan is also present.

NT Bureau

Chennai, Jan 6:

The Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India (ICWAI) will award seven members of the institute for their contribution to the corporate sector.

This was announced by ICWAI president Brijmohan Sharma at a press conference in Chennai yesterday.

He said that awards would be distributed at 52 National Cost Convention 2011, scheduled to take place in Chennai between 6 and 8 January, in the city.

Brijmohan also said the awardees would be conferred the title 'Distinguished Icon of the Year'. They are: ICICI Bank Ltd managing director and CEO Chanda D Kochhar, chairman of Steel Authority of India Ltd C S Verma, CMD of United India Insurance Company Ltd G Srinivasan, CMD of National Small Industries Corporation Ltd H P Kumar, managing director of Pfizer India Ltd Kewal Handa, CMD of Orchid Chemicals and Pharmaceuticals Ltd K Raghavendra Rao and CMD of Coal India Ltd Partha S Bhattacharyya. He said the convention would be inaugurated by Union Minister of State for Finance S S Palanimanickam and includes a host of speakers like secretary, Ministry of Corporate Affairs, R Bandyopadhyay, founder and Dean of Great Lakes Institute of Management Bala V Balachandran and president of Chartered Institute of Management Accountants, the UK, George Glass.