An application for the grant of Certificate of Practice shall be accompanied by prescribed Certificate of Practice fee and shall be in the appropriate Form. The Certificate shall be issued in the appropriate Form and shall be valid till the 31st day of March every year until it is cancelled under the provisions of the Act and these Regulations. The Certificate of Practice issued shall automatically be renewed subject to payment of renewal fees as determined by the Council from time to time.;

Provided that no certificate of practice and renewal thereof shall be issued unless a member has undergone minimum number of hours of such training to be undergone every year or such block of years or such other alternative conditions as may be determined by the Council by notification from time to time."

(2) A member who ceases to be in practice shall, not later than one month from the date he ceases to practise, intimate the fact to the Council in writing.

(3) A member who ceases to be in practice or whose Certificate of Practice has been cancelled under Regulation 11 shall surrender the Certificates then held by him to the Secretary.

11. (1) A Certificate of Practice issued under subsection (1) of Section 6 shall be liable for cancellation, if—

(a) the name of the holder of the certificate is removed from the Register under sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 20; or

(b) the Council is satisfied, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the person concerned, that such certificate was issued on the basis of incorrect, misleading or false information provided by the applicant, or by mistake or inadvertence on the part of the Council; or

(c) a member has ceased to practise; or

(d) a member has not paid annual fee for certificate of practice till 23⁰th day of June of the relevant year.

³Provided that the Council shall give reasonable notice to the member and shall afford to the member an opportunity of being heard before cancelling his certificate.

1. Regulation 10 sub-regulation 1 amended vide Notification No. CWR(1) 2010 dated 4th February, 2011.

2. Regulation 11 clause (d) of sub-regulation amended vide Notification No. CWR(1) 2012 dated 25th May, 2012.

3. Regulation 11 added with a proviso vide Notification No. CWR(1) 2012 dated 25th May, 2012.

(2) The cancellation of a Certificate shall be effective—

(a) in a case falling under clause (a) of sub-regulation (1) on the date on which and during the period for which the name of the holder of the certificate was removed from the Register of members;

(b) in a case falling under clause (d) of sub-regulation (1) from the 15th day following the date of issue of notice by the Secretary on or after the 1st day of July; and

(c) in any other case, from such date and for such period, as may be decided by the Council.

(3) When a Certificate is cancelled, the date from which and the period for which the Certificate shall stand cancelled, shall be communicated in writing by registered post or Speed post or Courier to the member concerned at the address entered in the Register and shall be published in its Journal.

(4) Where a certificate of practice is cancelled, the holder of such certificate shall surrender the certificate to the Secretary within fifteen days from the date of receipt of notice of such cancellation or from the date of the notification thereof published in the Journal, whichever is later, under sub-regulation (3).

CHAPTER III

COMPLAINTS AND ENQUIRIES

12. Complaints and enquiries relating to misconduct of members—(Applicable to a complaint or information pending before the Council or any inquiry initiated by the Disciplinary Committee or any reference or appeal made to a High Court prior to 17-11-2006).

(I) Subject to the provisions of this Regulation, all complaints against members of the Institute under ²Section 21 shall be investigated, and all enquiries relating to misconduct of members shall be held, by the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) A complaint under Section 21 shall be made to the Council in ³“Appropriate Form”.

(3) Every such complaint shall contain the following particulars, namely :—

1. Regulation 11(2)(b) amended vide Notification No. CWR(1) 2012 dated 25th May, 2012.

2. For the Resolution of the Council for supply of papers under section 2, please see Appendix No. 2 at page 64.

3. Regulation 12(2) amended vide Notification No. CWR(1) 2010 dated 4th February, 2011.

- (a) the acts and omissions which if proven would render the member complained against guilty of any professional or other misconduct;
- (b) the oral or documentary evidence relied upon in support of the allegations made in the complaint.

(3A) Every complaint other than a complaint made by or on behalf of the Central or any State Government, shall be accompanied by a deposit of a sum of Rs. 50 which will be forfeited if the council after considering the complaint comes to the conclusion that no prima facie case is made out and that the complaint is either a frivolous one or is made with malafide intention.

(4) The Secretary shall return a complaint which is not in the proper form or which does not contain the aforesaid particulars to the complainant for re-presentation after compliance with such objections and within such time as the Secretary may specify.

(5) Within sixty days ordinarily of the receipt of complaint under Section 21 the Secretary shall,

(a) If the complaint is against an individual member, send a copy thereof to such member at his address as entered in the Register of Members.

(b) If the complaint is against a firm, send a copy of the complaint to the firm concerned at the address of the Head Office of the firm as entered in the register of Offices and Firms with a notice calling upon the firm to disclose the name of the member concerned and to send a copy, of the complaint to such member.

(6) A member against whom a complaint is made may, within fourteen days of the service of a copy of the complaint under sub-regulation. (5), or within such further time as the Secretary may allot, forward to him a written statement in his defence verified in the same manner as a pleading in a Civil Court.

(7) If, on a perusal of the complaint and the written statement, if any of the members concerned and other relevant documents and papers, the Council is of the opinion that there is a prima facie case against such member, the Council shall cause an enquiry to be made in the matter by the Disciplinary Committee. If the Council is of the opinion that there is no prima facie case against the member concerned or if the subject matter of the complaint is substantially the same as or caused by a complaint already received against such member, the complaint shall be dismissed and the complainant and the member concerned shall be informed accordingly :

Provided that the Council may before dismissing the complaint, call for any additional particulars or documents connected with the case, either from the complainant or from the respondent or from both, if in its opinion it is necessary to do so.

(8) Every notice issued by the Secretary or by the Disciplinary Committee under this Regulation shall be sent to the member or the firm concerned by registered post with acknowledgement due. If the notice is returned with endorsement indicating that the addressee cannot be found at the address given, the Secretary shall ask the complainant to supply to him the correct address of the member or firm concerned and send a fresh notice to the member or firm at the address so supplied.

13. (Applicable to a complaint or information pending before the Council or any inquiry initiated by the Disciplinary Committee or any reference or appeal made to a High Court prior to 17-11-2006). The procedure prescribed by Regulation 12 shall, so far as may be, apply to any information received under Section 21.

14. Procedure in any enquiry before the Disciplinary Committee—(Applicable to a complaint or information pending before the Council or any inquiry initiated by the Disciplinary Committee or any reference or appeal made to a High Court prior to 17-11-2006).

(1) It shall be the duty of the Secretary to place before the Disciplinary Committee all facts brought to his knowledge which are relevant for the purpose of an enquiry by the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) A member against whom a complaint is made shall have a right to defend himself before the Disciplinary Committee either in person or through a legal practitioner or any other member of the Institute.

(3) The Disciplinary Committee shall have the power to regulate its procedure in such manner as it considers necessary and during the course of enquiry may examine witnesses on oath receive affidavits and any other oral or documentary evidence.

(4) Where, during the progress of an enquiry, the Disciplinary Committee undergoes a change of personnel for any reason whatsoever, the respondent shall have the option to have his case heard de-novo and the enquiry conducted accordingly.

15. Report of the Disciplinary Committee—(Applicable to a complaint or information pending before the Council or any inquiry initiated by the Disciplinary Committee or any reference or appeal made to a High Court prior to 17-11-2006).

(1) The Disciplinary Committee shall submit its report to the Council.

(2) The Council shall consider the report of the Disciplinary Committee and if in its opinion a further enquiry is necessary, may cause such further enquiry to be made and a further report submitted by the Disciplinary Committee and after considering such further report of the Disciplinary Committee, the Council shall proceed in the manner laid down in Section 21.

15A. Procedure in hearing before the Council—(Applicable to a complaint or information pending before the Council or any inquiry initiated by the Disciplinary Committee or any reference or appeal made to a High Court prior to 17-11-2006).

(1) If the Council, on recording a finding, as required under sub-section (3) of Section 21, is of the opinion that there is a case for passing one of the orders specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (4) of the said Section, it shall—

(a) furnish to the member against whom the complaint relating to the finding has been made, a copy of the report of the Disciplinary Committee and a copy of its finding ; and

(b) give him such notice as may be decided by the Council, indicating the order proposed to be passed against him and calling upon him to appear before it on a specified date or dates, or if he does not wish to be heard in person, to send within a specified time such representation in writing as he may wish to make against the proposed order.

(2) The scope of the hearing or of the representation in writing, as the case may be, shall be restricted to the matters concerning the enquiry.

(3) The Council shall after hearing the member concerned, if he appears in person, or after considering the representation, if any, made by him, pass such orders as it may think fit.

(4) The orders passed by the Council shall be communicated to the complainant and to the member concerned.

15B. Fee and procedure for investigation of a complaint or information to be followed by the Director (Discipline), Disciplinary Directorate and procedure for inquiry by the Disciplinary Committee—

[Applicable to a complaint or information received on or after 17-11-2006]

(1) Every complaint other than a compliant filed by or on behalf of the Central or any State Government, or any Statutory authority shall be accompanied by a fee of two thousand five hundred rupees.

(2) Each such complaint or information shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure specified in the Cost and Works Accountants (Procedure of investigations of Professional and Other Misconduct and Conduct of Cases) Rules, 2007.

16. Notification of removal—The removal of the name of any person from the membership of the Institute shall be communicated in writing to the person concerned and shall be published in the Journal of the Institute.

17. Restoration to Membership—

(1) The Council may on application in the “Appropriate Form”¹ including electronic form as may be prescribed by the Council, from a member, whose name stood removed from the Register of members of the dissolved company or under clause (c) of sub section (1) of Section 20, for non-payment of fees, restore his name, if he is otherwise eligible to such membership, on his paying the arrears of annual membership fee, entrance fee and additional fee as may be determined by the Council under the Act.

(2) The restoration under sub-regulation (1) shall be with effect from the date on which the application along with the fee is received :

Provided that where such an application for restoration, complete in all respects, is received within the same year, in which the name was removed, the Council may restore the name on his paying the annual membership fee due for that year, entrance fee and the additional fee for restoration, with effect from the date on which it was removed from the Register :

Provided further that the restoration of a member’s name which was removed under the orders of the Board of Discipline or the Disciplinary Committee or the appellate authority or the High Court shall be effected only in accordance with such orders;

1. Regulation 17(1) amended vide Notification No. CWR(1) 2010 dated 4th February, 2011.

17A. Restoration of certificate of practice.—

(1) The Council may, on an application and on payment such fee, as may be determined by the Council under sub-section (3) of Section 20, restore the certificate of practice with effect from the date on which it was cancelled, to a member whose certificate has been cancelled due to non-payment of the annual fee for the certificate of practice and whose application, complete in all respects, together with the fee, is received by the Secretary before the expiry of the relevant year;

(2) On acceptance of the application for restoration, the restoration of certificate of practice shall be communicated in writing to the person concerned and shall be published in the Journal.

18. Notification of restoration—The restoration of a member's name to the register shall be communicated in writing to him and shall be published in the Journal of Institute.

CHAPTER XI

REGIONAL COUNCILS

114. Constitution of Regional Council.—(1) The Council* may by notification in the Journal of the Institute, constitute a Regional Council for any region, which shall be known by such name as may be specified in such notification.

(2) A Regional Council shall consist of—

- (a) the elected members of the Council* representing the region ;
- (b) the nominated members of the Council* belonging to the region;
- (c) not less than ¹six members who shall be elected by the members of the Institute representing the region from amongst themselves at the rate which shall bear the same proportion to ¹thirty two as the number of members in the region bears to the number of members in all the regions, fractions exceeding half being counted as one and fractions equivalent to or less than half being omitted:

Provided that if the number of members elected to Regional Council is less than the number of persons to be elected to that Regional Council, the remaining vacancies may be filled up by co-option by the Council* from amongst the members to be nominated in this behalf by the Regional Council concerned. A member so co-opted shall hold office till the expiry of the duration of the said Regional Council.

Explanation.—²The professional address of a member of the Institute as entered in the Register of Members shall determine the region which such member represents. However, in the case of a member of the Council*, his professional address as furnished at the time of his election or nomination to the Council*, shall determine the region which such member represents. A Regional Council so constituted shall at all times function subject to the control, supervision and direction of the Council and shall carry out such directions as may be issued by the Council from time to time.

115. Regional Register of Members.—(1) ¹The register of members maintained by Council* under Regulation 3 shall be grouped Region-wise on the basis of the professional address of the members which shall be construed as Regional Register of Members.

(2) A copy of the Regional Register of Members as referred to in (1) above shall be furnished to Regions on quarterly basis or such shorter periods as may be decided by the Council. Such Regional Register may be furnished in electronic form.

116. Functions of the Regional Councils.—(1) The Regional Councils shall advise and assist the Council* in carrying out provisions of the Act.

(2) In particular, the Regional Councils may :

(i) provide facilities for intercourse among members of the Institute in the region by regular meetings, arrangement of talks and lectures and for the acquisition and dissemination of useful information in connection with the profession of accountancy ;

(ii) advise the Council* on all matters referred to them by the said Council and offer such other help as may be required.

(iii) make representations to the Council* in connection with matters of professional and business interest in the region and offer suggestions for raising the standard and status of the profession ;

(iv) maintain a Regional Register of Members, and the Register of Students in the region;

(v) supply routine information to members or to the prospective candidates for examinations;

(vi) propagate among the members the advisability and necessity of observing the rules of professional etiquette and the provisions of the Act and these Regulations ;

(vii) collect news from the members of the profession for publication in the Journal of the Institute;

(viii) recommend on their own motion, or on a reference by the Council*, names for inclusion in the panel of examiners;

(ix) consider and recommend to the Council* books which may be considered useful for candidates intending to appear for the Intermediate and Final examinations of the Institute;

* The word "Central Council" substituted with "Council" vide Notification No. CWR(1) 2012, dated 25th May, 2012.

(x) arrange, if desired by the Council*, for coaching candidates for the aforesaid examinations in the various centres of the region ;

(xi) maintain contacts with the various departments of Governments of the States within the region with a view to enlisting their support in the furtherance of the interest of the members of the Institute ;

(xii) run study-circles and refresher course camps for the benefit of the Registered Students and members of the Institute;

(xiii) constitute a permanent research sub-committee for carrying out research work and for giving guidance in and encouragement of research by members in various topics of interest to the profession;

¹Provided that no research or allied activities shall be conducted by Regional Councils except with the prior sanction of the Council for carrying out such activities :

Provided further that the Council while sanctioning such activities shall fix the total amount which may be expended for a research or other allied project and shall fix a time frame.

(xiv) maintain a library and reading-room for the use of the members;

(xv) maintain an Employment Exchange for securing suitable employment for qualified cost accountants and finding suitable qualified cost accountants for employers:

(xvi) organise a student section for the benefit of the Registered Students preparing for the Institute's examinations;

(xvii) carry out such other functions as may be entrusted from time to time by the Council*.

²Provided that no Regional Council shall organize any programme, directly or indirectly in a place outside the region concerned including any foreign programme.

(2) Any provision in this chapter inconsistent with the provisions of the Cost and Works Accountants (Election to the Council) Rules, 2006 shall, to the extent of such inconsistency, be void.

(3) Any reference in the Cost and Works Accountants (Election to the Council) Rules, 2006 to the President of the Council shall, for the purpose of elections to the Regional Councils be construed as a reference to the Chairman of the Regional Council.

119. Disputes regarding election—Where any dispute arises regarding any election to any of the Regional Councils, the matter shall be referred within thirty days from the date of election to the President of the Council* and his decision shall be final.

120. Vacancies—(1) A member of a Regional Council may at any time resign his membership by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman of the Regional Council and the seat of such member shall become vacant when such resignation is notified in the Journal of the Institute.

(2) If an elected member of a Regional Council is elected to the Council*, such member shall cease to be a member of the Regional Council and the vacancy so caused may be filled up by co-option by the Council* from amongst the members nominated in this behalf by the Regional Council concerned. A member so co-opted shall hold office till the expiry of the duration of the said Regional Council.

(3) Any casual vacancy in the first Regional Council constituted by the Council* under the provisions of sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 114 may be filled up by co-option by the Council* and any casual vacancy in the subsequent Regional Council may be filled up by the Regional Council concerned. A member so co-opted shall hold office till the expiry of the duration of the said Regional Council.

(4) If an elected or a co-opted member of a Regional Council changes his professional address from the regional constituency from which he was elected or to which he was elected or to which he belonged at the time of co-option, as the case may be to any other constituency, such member shall cease to be a member of the Regional Council and the vacancy so caused may be filled up by co-option of another member by the Regional Council concerned. A member so co-opted shall hold office till the expiry of the duration of the said Regional Council.

* The word "Central Council" substituted with "Council" vide Notification No. CWR(1) 2012, dated 25th May, 2012.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, an elected or co-opted member of a Regional Council shall be deemed to have vacated his seat if he is declared by the Regional Council to have been absent without sufficient excuse from three consecutive meetings of the Regional Council or if his name is, for any reason, removed from the Regional Register of Members under the provisions of these Regulations and the vacancy so caused may be filled by co-option of another member by the Regional Council concerned. A member so co-opted shall hold office till the expiry of the duration of the said Regional Council.

121. Duration of Regional Council—(1) The duration of a Regional Council shall be ¹four years from the date of constitution of the Regional Council which shall be specified by the Council* by a notification in this behalf in the Journal of the Institute:

Provided that the Council* may, if in its opinion circumstances so warrant, extend or shorten the life of a Regional Council by a like notification.

(2) On the expiry of the duration of a Regional Council, a new Regional Council shall be constituted in the manner provided in these Regulations.

122. Officers of the Regional Council.—(1) Every Regional Council at its first meeting after its first constitution and in subsequent years at the first meeting of the Regional Council after the Annual General Meeting of the Regional Constituency, shall elect from amongst its members a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer thereof, and so often as any of these offices becomes vacant, the Regional Council shall choose another person from among its members to hold that office. The said office bearers shall hold office until the first meeting of the Regional Council after the Annual General Meeting of the Regional Constituency:

Provided that the retiring office-bearers shall be eligible for re-election to any of the offices of the Regional Council if they continue to be members of the Regional Council.

(2) The first meeting of the Regional Council referred to in sub-regulation (1) shall be called and held within one month from the date of its constitution or from the date of the Annual General Meeting of the Regional Constituency, as the case may be. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the said first meeting of the Regional Council referred to hereinbefore, a quorum as mentioned in Regulation 75 is not present, the said first meeting shall, notwithstanding anything contained in that Regulation, stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and at such adjourned meeting of the Regional Council, the members present, whatever their number, shall form the quorum and shall have power to transact all the business, which could properly have been transacted by the original meeting had the necessary quorum been present.

¹123. Powers and Duties of Chairman of a Regional Council — (a) The Chairman of a Regional Council shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as are conferred or imposed on him by the Act or these regulations, or as may be delegated to him by the Regional Council from time to time.

(b) The Chairman may direct any business to be brought before Regional Council or any committee for consideration.

(c) If the office of the Chairman is vacant or if the Chairman is unable to exercise the powers or perform the duties of his office, the Vice-Chairman shall act in his place and shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Chairman

124. Functions of Secretary of the Regional Council.—The Secretary of the Regional Council shall be responsible for the performance of general duties of the office of the Regional Council under the guidance of the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman. The Secretary of the Regional Council may, if there is no Treasurer, act as Treasurer also. The Treasurer shall cause proper accounts to be maintained of the moneys received and expended, and of the assets and liabilities of the Regional Council.

125. Continuance in Office—On the expiration of the duration of a Regional Council, the Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer for the time being, shall discharge the duties and functions of the Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer respectively as provided in this Chapter until such time as the next Regional Council is constituted and its Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer elected under the provisions of this Chapter take over charge of their respective duties.

126. Other Staff.—For the purpose of carrying out its functions, a

Regional Council may appoint such staff and servants for its office as it may from time to time consider necessary.

127. Committees of the Regional Council—

(1) The Regional Council at a meeting shall constitute a Students' Facilities Committee and such other Committees as the Council* may direct and may constitute any other Committee as it deems necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of these Regulations.

(2) Constitution of Committees.—Each of the Committees shall consist of the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman of the Regional Council, ex-officio, as the Regional Council may decide and not less than two other members of the Regional Council elected by that Council :

Provided that, in the case of any Committee constituted at the direction of the Council*, out of the members to be elected, one shall be nominated by the Council* from amongst the members of the Council* representing the region:

Provided, however, that, notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, any Committee formed under this Regulation may with the sanction of the Regional Council co-opt one member of the Institute belonging to the region as a member of the Committee and any member so co-opted shall be entitled to exercise all the rights of a member of the Committee :

Provided further that the Regional Council may sanction such co-option for not more than two of its Committees :

¹Provided further that the Students' Facilities Committee shall consist of not less than three members of the Regional Council and shall have the power to co-opt not more than two persons who shall be Registered Student. Any person so co-opted shall be entitled to exercise all the rights of a member of the Committee.

128. Chairman of Committee.—A Regional Council shall elect a member of the Committee to be the Chairman of the Committee:

Provided that in the case of any Committee constituted at the direction of the Council*, unless otherwise nominated by the Council*, the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman of the Regional Council, as the case may be, shall be the Chairman.

129. Term of Office.—Every member of a Committee shall hold office until the first meeting of the Regional Council after the Annual General regions at least 14 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting of the Regional Constituency and shall be placed for adoption before the Annual General Meeting of the Constituency; provided that the auditors for the first year shall be appointed by the Regional Council. The year will be from 1st April to 31st March of the next year.

134. Audit Report.—A copy of the audited accounts and the report of the Regional Council as adopted by the Annual General Meeting shall be sent to the Council* not later than one month after the date of the Annual General Meeting.

135. Meetings of the Regional Councils.—The provisions of Chapter VIII shall apply to the meetings of the Regional Councils, mutatis mutandis, except that a notice of not less than ten days shall be given for meetings of the Regional Councils.

136. Annual General Meetings of the members of Regional Constituencies.

(1) A Regional Council shall convene on or before ¹30th June of every year an Annual General Meeting of the Regional Constituency.

(2) The business at an Annual General Meeting shall be to receive the report of the Regional Council, to adopt the accounts, to appoint auditors and to transact such other business as may be brought before the meeting with the permission of the Chairman.

²137. Extraordinary General Meetings.—(1) A Regional Council —

(a) may, as often as it considers necessary; and

(b) shall, on requisition made in writing by at least twenty per cent. of the total number of members of the regional Register, convene an extraordinary general meeting.

(2) Any requisition made in writing for convening an Extraordinary General Meeting shall specify the objects for which the meeting is called and shall be signed by the members making the same and shall be delivered at the office of the Regional Council.

(3) When a requisition is made under sub-regulation (1), the Regional Council shall convene an Extraordinary General Meeting within six weeks after the receipt of such requisition.”

138. Notice of meeting.—At least 14 days notice of every general meeting specifying the date, place and hour of such meeting and in case of special business, the general nature of such business shall be given.

- (b) Student of the Institute : Rs. 500/- irrespective of the number of nominations.
- (2) The fee shall be paid by a demand draft drawn in favour of the Chapter and payable at the office of the Chapter concerned.

Explanation :

- (1) The fee payable and method of payment of such fee shall be included in the notification issued and displayed on the notice board of the Chapter.
- (2) A candidate whose nomination is held to be invalid shall be entitled to receive refund of fifty percent of the fee payable.
- (5) Scrutiny of nominations.—
 - (a) The Election Officer appointed by the Chapter shall scrutinize the nomination papers of all the candidates.
 - (b) The Election Officer shall have the power to regulate the procedure including the designing of forms and ballot papers to be used for the purpose of election in such manner as he considers just and expedient.
 - (c) The Election Officer shall scrutinize the nomination papers of all the candidates and shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision, whether he accepts or rejects the nomination.
 - (d) The Election Officer shall record a brief statement of reasons if he rejects a nomination.
 - (e) The Election Officer shall reject a nomination if it is satisfied:
 - (i) that the candidate was ineligible to stand for election under these Bye-laws; or
 - (ii) that the proposer or the seconder was not qualified to subscribe to the nomination of the candidate; or
 - (iii) that the signature of the candidate or of the proposer or the seconder is not genuine; or
 - (iv) that there has been a failure to comply with the Bye-laws and instructions issued in this behalf.

Explanation I.— The Election Officer shall not reject a nomination paper on the ground of a technical defect which is not of a substantial character.

Explanation II.—The rejection of the nomination of a candidate by reason of any irregularity in respect of that nomination shall not be a bar to the acceptance of another nomination submitted and is also valid in respect of the same candidate.

Explanation III.—If a proposer or a seconder incurs a disability by reason of the operation of the provisions of the Cost and Works Accountants Act, 1959 and the Rules & Regulations made thereunder subsequent to the date of signing the nomination, it shall not invalidate the nomination.

(6) Preparation of list of valid nominations.—

- (1) On completion of the scrutiny of the nominations, the Election Officer shall forthwith prepare a list of valid nominations and cause a copy of the list to be displayed on the notice board of the Chapter and also submit a copy of the list to the Secretary of the Institute or in the absence of the Secretary, to any such officer as designated in this behalf by the Council :

Provided that such list should be displayed at least three days before the last date of withdrawal of nominations as provided under these Bye-laws.

- (2) The list shall contain full names in alphabetical order and the addresses, as published in the list of voters, of the validly nominated candidates.

(7) Withdrawal of candidature.—

- (a) A candidate may withdraw his candidature by giving a notice in his own hand and duly signed by him and have it delivered to the Election Officer any time before 6.00 p.m. of the last date notified by the Managing Committee.
- (b) No candidate who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under sub-rule (1) shall be allowed to cancel or withdraw that notice.
- (c) A candidate who has withdrawn his candidature shall be entitled to the refund of fifty percent of the fee paid by him under these Bye-laws.

(8) Intimation of final list of nominations to candidates and voters.—
The Election Officer shall omit from the list of valid nominations the names of candidates who have withdrawn their candidature and display the final list of nominations on the notice board of the Chapter and also submit a copy of the list to the Secretary of the Institute or in the absence of the Secretary, to any such officer as designated in this behalf by the Council.

(9) Appeals and Election Code of Conduct.—

With a view to maintain a healthy and peaceful atmosphere during the election process for ensuring a free and fair election, the Election Officer, shall receive the appeals and complaints with regard to election and forward it by Speed Post to the Secretary of the Institute or in the absence of the Secretary, to any such officer as designated in this behalf by the Council within 3 days of receipt of the appeal or complaint for disposal. The decision of the Secretary of the Institute or in the absence of the Secretary, any such officer as designated in this behalf by the Council, shall be final in this regard.

The time limit for filing appeal or complaint on any matter relating to the conduct of election shall be 7 days from the date of occurrence of an incident pertaining to the election.

(10) Mode of election.—

- (a) The election shall be held in accordance with the system of simple majority.
- (b) Every election where a poll is taken, vote shall be given by secret ballot and every voter in any election, shall cast his vote personally in the booth provided for the purpose.
- (c) A voter shall put a tick (✓) mark against the name of the candidate(s) not exceeding the number of candidates to be elected, in whose favour the vote is cast and may put a cross (×) mark against the names of candidates in whose favour the votes are not cast.

(11) Appointment of Election Observers.—

The Council may appoint such number of election observers as may be required, who shall not be members of the Institute, for all or any of the polling booths and for counting venue or venues, as may be deemed appropriate and such observers shall perform such duties as may be decided by the Council.

(12) Secret Chamber.—

- (a) There shall be a secret chamber or chambers in each polling booth.
- (b) The chamber shall be so arranged that no person may be able to see how a voter has recorded his vote.

(13) Ballot paper.—

- (a) The ballot paper shall contain, in alphabetical order in English, a list of the candidates validly nominated for an eligible post of the office and shall be printed on one side only.
- (b) Each such ballot paper shall contain the Institute's emblem printed in such manner, as may be decided by the Election Officer having regard to the security considerations of the ballot paper. (A specimen of ballot paper is annexed as Annexure III).

(14) Grounds for declaring ballot papers invalid.—A ballot paper shall be invalid :

- (a) if a voter signs his name or writes any word or figure upon it or makes any mark other than a tick (✓) mark against the name of the candidates more than the number of candidates to be elected in whose favour the vote is cast and not being a cross (×) mark put against the name of the candidates in whose favour the votes are not cast, by which the ballot paper becomes recognizable or by which the voter can be identified; or
- (b) if it is not printed by or under the authority of the Managing Committee of the Chapter or it is different in any manner from the ballot papers printed; or
- (c) if it is unmarked or the marks made are void or cannot be unambiguously determined; or
- (d) if it is so damaged or mutilated that its identity as a genuine ballot paper cannot be established.

(15) Presence of candidates at the time of counting of votes.—

A candidate for election shall be entitled to be present in person or to appoint a member of the Chapter concerned as his representative to be present on his behalf at the time of counting of votes.

(16) Counting of votes.—

The counting of votes shall be made by the Election Officer and for this purpose he may depute one or more assistants, who shall not be members of the Managing Committee.

(17) Declaration of results.—

The names of the candidates declared elected shall be notified and displayed on the notice board of the Chapter by the Election Officer. A copy of such notification shall be forthwith sent by Speed Post to the Secretary of the Institute or in the absence of the Secretary, to any such officer as designated in this behalf by the Council.

(18) Election Officer to decide on certain matters.—

If any question pertaining to or incidental to the procedure for conduct of election including matters not specifically covered in these Bye-laws arises, it shall be decided by the Election Officer.

20. Notice of meetings—

- (1) In the case of a General Meeting at least fourteen days' notice of the meeting specifying the date, place and hour of the meeting and in case of special business, the general nature of such business shall be given. Copies of notice of all General Meetings shall be sent to the Regional Council concerned at the same time as they are sent to the members of the Chapter
