Over the years, the number of pending appeals filed by taxpayers as well as Government were increasing day by day since number of filed appeals is much higher than the number of disposed appeals. As a result, huge amount of disputed tax arrears is locked-up in these appeals. As on the 30th November, 2019, the amount of disputed direct tax arrears is Rs. 9.32 lakh crores. Therefore, there is an urgent need to provide such type of dispute resolution scheme as one time solution for long time pending disputes.

To enjoy the benefit of this Scheme to resolve disputes in Direct Tax, the appellant will have to furnish an undertaking waiving his rights to seek any remedy or claim in relation to that dispute under any law, including the Income Tax Act, 1961 (IT Act). Any claims already filed in relation to the dispute must be withdrawn before filing the declaration.

The proposed Bill shall come into the force on the date it receives the assent of the President and declaration may be made thereafter up to the date to be notified by the Government.
