Transfer of property to be void in certain cases – Section 81

The said provision is for protecting the Government revenue by avoiding transfer of property by a taxable person to another person. This would prevent any attempt to defraud the revenue by alienating the properties.

(i) The said provision would be applicable only when any tax would become due.

(ii) The following acts done by a person, in favour of any another person, after the tax becomes due, would be void

Situations / cases – Void	Situations / cases – valid
Creates a charge on; or	Made for adequate consideration and
Parts with the property	Without notice of the pendency of proceeding
Belonging to him; or	Without notice of such tax or other sum payable by the said person,
In his possession By way of sale, mortgage, exchange, or any other mode of transfer whatsoever of any of his properties.	With previous permission of the proper officer.

(iii) The act shall be void, when it is or was with an intention of defrauding the Government Revenue.

Tax to be first charge on property – Section 82

- (i) The provisions of this section would apply to a taxable person or any other person who is liable to pay tax, interest or penalty to Central or State Government;
- (ii) Any liability to be paid to the Central or State Government would be given priority in the matter of effecting recovery by placing a first charge on the property of the taxable person or any other person;
- (iii) This provision also covers any other person since there are many provisions in the CGST Act, which provide for creating a liability or recovery from a person other than the taxable person like a legal representative, member of partitioned HUF etc.

Provisional attachment to protect revenue in certain cases – Section 83

(i) This section applies only during the pendency of any proceedings under

Section 62	Assessment of non-filers of returns
Section 64	Summary assessment in certain special cases
Section 73	Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded other than fraud

(ii) The provisional attachment of property of taxable person can be undertaken by the Commissioner;

(iii) The only condition is that the Commissioner should be of the opinion that for the purpose of protecting the interest of the Govt. revenue it is necessary to provisionally attach the property;

(iv) Such provisional attachment is to be valid for one year from the date of the order made by Commissioner.

Continuation and validation of certain recovery proceedings – Sec 84

This section deals with continuation of proceedings, where a notice is already served for recovery of government dues upon a taxable person and upon any appeal, revision application there is reduction or enhancement of such Government dues.

(i) The section refers to –

-any notice of demand in respect of Government dues (tax, interest and penalty) served on taxable person; and

-any appeal, revision application is filed or other proceedings are initiated in respect of such Government dues.

Further–

(a) such Government dues may be enhanced; or

(b) reduced in such appeal, revision or in other proceedings

(ii) In such cases, the Commissioner shall –

- Serve another notice on the taxable person, in respect of the enhanced amount.

Continuation and validation of certain recovery proceedings – Sec 84

- If notice of demand is already served on taxable person before such appeal, revision or any other proceedings, then recovery of enhanced amount would be continued from the stage at which the initial proceedings stood. There is no need to issue a fresh notice of demand to the extent already covered by earlier notice.

-In case the Government dues are reduced in such appeal, revision or in other proceedings – the Commissioner

(1)Is not required to serve fresh notice of demand upon the taxable person;

(2)Shall intimate such reduction to taxable person and also to appropriate authority with whom recovery proceedings are pending;

(3)Any recovery proceedings are initiated prior to the disposal of such appeal, revision application or other proceeding may be continued in relation to the amount so reduced from the stage at which such proceedings stood immediately before such disposal.
