CASE CITED

Sharat Babu Digumarti v. Government (NCT of Delhi) — 2017 (2) SCC 18 — Relied on

REPRESENTED BY : Shri Shashwat Seth, Adv. for the Petitioner.

Shri Sudeep Bhargava, Dy. Adv. General for the Respondent.

[Order per : Sushrut Arvind Dharmadhikari, J.] - Heard finally at motion stage with consent of the parties.

1. The petitioner herein has filed the present petition seeking following reliefs from this court:-

"7.1 To issue a writ of Mandamus thereby quashing the entire proceedings and ancillary proceedings in pursuance to the summons issued on 11/08/2021 against the petitioner.

7.2. To issue a writ of mandamus thereby quashing the proceedings instituted against the petitioner in the Crime No. 61/2022 and its ancillary proceedings.

7.3. To issue a writ thereby seeking a clarification from the GST department and the police authority to explain its stance as to why the petitioner has been implicated in the whole proceedings of the Crime No. 61/2022.

7.4. To allow the petition with costs.

7.5. To issue or pass any such orders or direction as this Hon. Court may deem fit to pass in the matter in hand."

2. Brief facts of the case necessary for the disposal of present petition are as hereunder:-

- i. Petitioner is a proprietor of the proprietor firm named as M/s. Agrawal Soya Extracts Pvt Ltd carrying out its business of trade of Soya beans seeds and Soya De-Oiled Cakes.
- ii. On 11.08.2021, summon was issued to petitioner herein by Respondent No. 5 under Section 70 of GST Act, 2017 read with Section 174 of M.P GST Act, 2017 pursuant to which statements of petitioner were recorded.
- iii. On 14.02.2022, Respondent No. 5 in exercise of power conferred under Section 67(2) of GST Act, 2017, conducted search and seizure operations on the premises of M/s. Shreenath Soya Exim Corporate and prepared inspection report dated 04.07.2022 in which it has been alleged that M/s. Shreenath Soya Exim Corporate was bogus firm and fraudulently registered, which issued invoice/bill without supply of goods/services leading to wrongful availment or utilization of input tax credit/refund of tax.
- iv. Complaint dated 25.12.2022 was made by Respondent No.5 to Respondent No. 6, on the basis of which FIR No. 61/2022 under Section 420, 467, 468, 471 was registered by Respondent No. 6 on 26.12.2022 against M/s. Shreenath Soya Exim Corporate's proprietor Sachin Pateria in which petitioner has been implicated later on, on the basis of memorandum under Section 27 of Evidence Act.
- v. Aggrieved of the same, petitioner has approached this court.

3. Learned Counsel for the Petitioner has submitted that GST Act, 2017 is a complete code which provides for procedure to be adopted by GST Authorities, penalties in case of breach of provisions of GST Act and punishment for offences committed under GST Act. It is further submitted that admittedly in the case at hand, search and seizure operations conducted by GST Authorities under Section 67(2) of GST Act revealed commission of offence which is punishable under Section 132 of GST Act and hence, GST being a special statute, any offence which is squarely covered by the GST Act, provisions of IPC could not have been invoked without invoking the provisions of GST Act and hence registration of FIR at the instance of GST Authorities under provisions of Indian Penal Code without invoking penal provisions under GST Act is bad in law and the FIR and consequential proceedings are liable to be quashed on this ground. It is further submitted that Section 132(6) of GST Act requires previous sanction of the Commissioner before a person can be prosecuted for offences committed under Section 132 of GST Act and GST Authorities in order to bypass such procedural safeguard have gotten FIR registered under the penal provisions of IPC without invoking penal provisions under GST Act which cannot be permitted and hence on this ground also, FIR and consequential proceedings are liable to be quashed. In support of his submission, Learned Counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on judgment of hon'ble apex court in Sharat Babu Digumarti v. Government (NCT of Delhi) 2017 (2) SCC 18.

4. Per Contra, Learned Counsel for Respondents has submitted that offence under GST Act and IPC are distinct and there is no prohibition registration of offences under IPC by Police authorities on complaint being made by GST Authorities.

5. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

6. Upon hearing learned counsel for the parties, following issue arises for consideration before this court:-

"Whether the GST Authorities can launch prosecution invoking penal provisions under Indian Penal Code, without invoking the penal provisions of GST Act, when the alleged offences are covered under the provisions of GST Act and that too without obtaining Sanction under Section 132(6) of GST Act? If not, then whether the prosecution so launched is hit by legal bar against the institution or continuance of the proceedings so as to warrant quashment?

7. Before adjudicating the present petition on merits, fruitful reference can be made to relevant statutory provisions under the GST Act which are liable to be referred to for adjudication of the present petition:-

"67. Power of inspection, search and seizure.—

(1) Where the proper officer, not below the rank of Joint Commissioner, has reasons to believe that—

- (a) a taxable person has suppressed any transaction relating to supply of goods or services or both or the stock of goods in hand, or has claimed input tax credit in excess of his entitlement under this Act or has indulged in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder to evade tax under this Act; or
- (b) any person engaged in the business of transporting goods or an owner or operator of a warehouse or a godown or any other place is keeping goods which have escaped payment of tax or has kept his accounts or goods in such a manner as is likely to cause evasion of tax payable under this Act, he may authorise in writing any other officer of central tax to inspect any places of business of the taxable person or the persons engaged in the business of transporting goods or the owner or the operator of warehouse or godown or any other place.

(2) Where the proper officer, not below the rank of Joint Commissioner, either pursuant to an inspection carried out under sub-section (1) or otherwise, has reasons to believe that any goods liable to confiscation or any documents or books or things, which in his opinion shall be useful for or relevant to any proceedings under this Act, are secreted in any place, he may authorise in writing any other officer of central tax to search and seize or may himself search and seize such goods, documents or books or things:

Provided that where it is not practicable to seize any such goods, the proper officer, or any officer authorised by him, may serve on the owner or the custodian of the goods an order that he shall not remove, part with, or otherwise deal with the goods except with the previous permission of such officer:

Provided further that the documents or books or things so seized shall be retained by such officer only for so long as may be necessary for their examination and for any inquiry or proceedings under this Act.

- (3) The documents, books or things referred to in sub-section (2) or any other documents, books or things produced by a taxable person or any other person, which have not been relied upon for the issue of notice under this Act or the rules made thereunder, shall be returned to such person within a period not exceeding thirty days of the issue of the said notice.

8. Upon perusal of record, it is apparent that the petitioner herein had been summoned under Section 70 of GST Act vide Summon dated 11.08.2021 and he had given his statement with GST Authorities and thereafter no action under GST Act was taken against the petitioner by GST Authorities. GST authorities conducted search and seizure operations while exercising powers under Section 67(2) of GST Act, on the premises of M/s. Shreenath Soya Exim Corporate and prepared inspection report dated 04.07.2022, in which it has been alleged that Shri Vaibhav Laxmi Industries was bogus firm and has been fraudulently registered, which issued invoice/bill without supply of goods/services leading to wrongful availment or utilisation of input tax credit/refund of tax. Upon perusal of inspection report dated 04.07.2022 along with FIR, it becomes quite apparent that there is no allegation against the petitioner of forming the bogus firm and even if the allegations therein are taken at their face value, the same constitutes offence which are squarely covered by the penal provision of Section 132 of GST Act, 2017. It is not disputed that no sanction before launching prosecution i.e. registration of FIR, was taken from Commissioner as required under Section 132(6) of GST Act and no justification exists on part GST authorities to invoke penal provisions of IPC without invoking penal provisions under GST bypassing the procedure as prescribed under GST Act and in the considered opinion of this court, such justification is mandatory especially when uncontroverted allegations in the inspection report dated 04.07.2022 and FIR, constituted offence squarely covered under the provisions of GST Act, 2017, specifically Section 132 of GST Act.

9. In the considered opinion of this court, GST Act, 2017 is a special legislation which holistically deals with procedure, penalties and offences relating GST and at the cost of repetition this court cannot emphasise more that the GST Authorities cannot be permitted to bypass procedure for launching prosecution under GST Act, 2017 and invoke provisions of Indian Penal Code only without pressing into service penal provisions from GST Act and that too without obtaining sanction from commissioner under Section 132(6) of GST Act especially when the alleged actions squarely fall within the precincts of offence as enumerated under GST Act, 2017. This would defeat the very purpose of enacting a special statute such as GST Act, 2017, as the GST Authorities instead of conducting search and seizure and conducting proceedings as prescribed under GST Act, 2017 themselves would be delegating the same to local police authorities which cannot be said to be the intent of the legislature while enacting GST Act, 2017.

10. In view of the above, this court has no hesitation in holding that GST Authorities cannot bypass procedure prescribed under GST Act for launching prosecution by simply invoking penal provisions under IPC without invoking penal provisions under GST Act especially when the allegations so revealed as a result of search and seizure conducted by GST Authorities constituted offence covered under the penal provisions of GST Act as that would amount to bypassing procedural safeguards as provided under Section 132(6) of GST Act which requires sanction of the commissioner prior to initiation of prosecution, which is to the prejudice of the petitioner herein. Letting GST Authorities to adopt such course of action would amount to abuse of process of law which cannot be permitted by this court.

11. At this juncture, fruitful reference can be made to judgment of hon'ble apex court in Sharat Babu Digumarti v. Government (NCT of Delhi) 2017 (2) SCC 18, in which it has been held as hereunder:-

"32. The aforesaid passage clearly shows that if legislative intent is discernible that a latter enactment shall prevail, the same is to be interpreted in accord with the said intention. We have already referred to the scheme of the IT Act and how obscenity pertaining to electronic record falls under the scheme of the Act. We have also referred to Sections 79 and 81 of the IT Act. Once the special provisions having the overriding effect do cover a criminal act and the offender, he gets out of the net of the IPC and in this case, Section 292. It is apt to note here that electronic forms of transmission is covered by the IT Act, which is a special law. It is settled position in law that a special law shall prevail over the general and prior laws. When the Act in various provisions deals with obscenity in electronic form, it covers the offence under Section 292 IPC."

12. Resultantly, this petition deserves to be allowed and is hereby allowed. Ex Consequenti, FIR in Crime No.61/2022 under Section 420, 467, 468 and 471 registered with Respondent No. 6 and consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are hereby quashed, as against the petitioner. No order as to costs.

Section - 130, Central Goods And Services Tax Act, 2017

Confiscation of goods or conveyances and levy of penalty. ³³

³⁴ 130. (1) ^{34a}[Where] any person—

- (i) supplies or receives any goods in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder with intent to evade payment of tax; or
- (ii) does not account for any goods on which he is liable to pay tax under this Act; or
- (iii) supplies any goods liable to tax under this Act without having applied for registration; or
- (iv) contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder with intent to evade payment of tax; or
- (v) uses any conveyance as a means of transport for carriage of goods in contravention of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder unless the owner of the conveyance proves that it was so used without the knowledge or connivance of the owner himself, his agent, if any, and the person in charge of the conveyance, then, all such goods or conveyances shall be liable to confiscation and the person shall be liable to penalty under section 122.

(2) Whenever confiscation of any goods or conveyance is authorised by this Act, the officer adjudging it shall give to the owner of the goods an option to pay in lieu of confiscation, such fine as the said officer thinks fit:

Provided that such fine leviable shall not exceed the market value of the goods confiscated, less the tax chargeable thereon:

Provided further that the aggregate of such fine and penalty leviable shall not be less than the ^{34b}[penalty equal to hundred per cent of the tax payable on such goods]:

Provided also that where any such conveyance is used for the carriage of the goods or passengers for hire, the owner of the conveyance shall be given an option to pay in lieu of the confiscation of the conveyance a fine equal to the tax payable on the goods being transported thereon.

(3) ^{34c}[]

(4) No order for confiscation of goods or conveyance or for imposition of penalty shall be issued without giving the person an opportunity of being heard.

(5) Where any goods or conveyance are confiscated under this Act, the title of such goods or conveyance shall thereupon vest in the Government.

(6) The proper officer adjudging confiscation shall take and hold possession of the things confiscated and every officer of Police, on the requisition of such proper officer, shall assist him in taking and holding such possession.

(7) The proper officer may, after satisfying himself that the confiscated goods or conveyance are not required in any other proceedings under this Act and after giving reasonable time not exceeding three months to pay fine in lieu of confiscation, dispose of such goods or conveyance and deposit the sale proceeds thereof with the Government.
