Dear student,

Greetings from the Institute!

Congratulations on your having registered for ICMAT – 100 hours Training Module which will make you eligible for appearing the Dec 2013 Final Examination. As you all aware the following are the modules through which you can accumulate 100 Actual Leaning Hours (ALH).

SI. No.	Category	Maximum weightage assigned (ALH)	Remarks
1.	Training in the topics will be provided in a) classroom/ webinar/seminar/PD Programme mode.	100
2.	Project Work	50	You have to choose any 5 of the Topics/case studies hosted in the web site. Each of the topics carries a credit of 10 ALH.
3.	Summer training already completed by students as part of their Under Graduate and Post Graduate course or hands on training with companies/Practicing Cost Accountants	50

The delivery of the ICMAT module has been planned in such a way that you are able to finish the Module before 20th October, 2013. You will be given a login ID (The Email ID as given in the T-6 form by you will be your login ID and a password (Date of Birth as given by you in T-6 Form – DD/MM/YYYY format will be your password). Your entire activities under ICMAT will be traced using the IT tools. The IT tools will be made available to you from 12th September 2013 onward, through our website www.icmai.in.

In between you can keep the relevant certificates ready if you are eligible to claim 50 hours credit under category 3 given above. You are also advised to visit website as frequently as possible to know the schedule of webinars and seminars.

Please note that Your registration to the ICMAT module is subject to receipt and realization of the fees of Rs.3000/ prescribed for the ICMAT.

All the best.